AUSTIN KENNEL CLUB CODE OF ETHICS

The Austin Kennel Club, Inc. is a voluntary non-profit organization established to further the advancement of all breeds of purebred dogs. The Austin Kennel Club requires that all members and applicants for membership agree to abide by the terms and spirit of the Code of Ethics as outlined below. Failure to do so will be addressed through the Austin Kennel Club Constitution & Bylaws Article VI (Discipline)

AUSTIN KENNEL CLUB MEMBERS:

- Will be expected to follow the rules and regulations set forth by AKC.
- Will refrain from any activities which would be detrimental to any dog or the Austin Kennel Club.
- When attending events such as dog shows, matches, field trials, performance events, etc. must abide by the rules and regulations set forth by the sponsoring club and are expected to observe a high standard of conduct and good sportsmanship while encouraging sportsmanlike competition among club members and event participants.
- Agree to promote and practice responsible canine ownership, including providing proper and routine veterinary care for all your dogs; proper feed, care, affection, exercise, training, and housing, for all their dogs. Members pledge to observe good breeding practices in connection with any purebred dogs they may own, including but not limited to, awareness of health testing encouraged by breed parent clubs.
- Will not falsify any kind of records, including registration, pedigrees, certificates, show wins and titles, or health certificates. Breeders shall be familiar with AKC rules concerning record keeping, registration, sale and transfer of dogs, and abide by these rules.
- Will not offer dogs to participate in/with dog auctions or raffles, dog wholesalers/brokers, or be involved with or breed with the intent of selling puppies to pet stores. Breeders will offer support and be clear and honest in all dealings with those who purchase dogs from them.
